

Notes for PaaS Model Users

Web Image Monitor is additionally provided with the following screen for the PaaS (Printer as a Service) model you are using. Customer engineers will configure the settings.

Operation

A customer engineer uses the items below when registering or replacing the machine.

Registration Configurations

A customer engineer enters an ID and other items when registering the machine.

Proxy Function

A customer engineer uses the items below when configuring the proxy settings.

Troubleshooting

Messages

Message	Description
Operation failed, please contact service center (Code:xxx)	Please contact the service center.
Failed to connect to data center or Proxy Server	Please contact the service center.

■ The print job cannot be performed.

- Disconnected from the PaaS server. (Network communication has failed.)
- The power is off.